

INTRODUCING: Personal Astrology Chart MUSIC, custom-composed just for YOU by professional astrologer Doria Gambino and musical genius Tom Cassella!

I am very excited to tell you about an idea I came up with that is completely unique and original: MUSIC COMPOSED JUST FOR YOU, based on your own personal Natal Chart. (And we can also create Music for COUPLES – keep reading! This gives a whole new meaning to saying “they’re playing ‘Our Song’.”)

I’ll tell you the story of how this came about in a quick nutshell:

My name is Doria Gambino, and I have been a Professional Astrologer for 30 years. A few months ago, I attended a presentation by a brilliant musician named Tom Cassella outlining his revolutionary theories about music and sacred geometry. And as a result of everything I learned about music in Tom’s presentation, I saw many similarities between Music and Astrology Charts. In particular, what struck me was that everything in a Natal Chart is based on mathematical frequencies and geometric patterns -- and so is Music.

The next day, my mind started mulling over an idea: “I’ll bet there is a way to convert an Astrology chart into MUSIC to create a song about that specific person.” Tom had talked a lot about the field of “Sound Healing” during his presentation, and that really set me to thinking that if sound frequencies are a method used in healing, then an individual’s OWN PERSONAL frequencies – as found in their Natal Charts – should be ideal frequencies for that specific individual to use in maintaining his or her own personal well-being.

And that leads me to how I came up with this super-cool new idea for how to turn a Natal Chart into a music SONG about that person:

What I realized is that each planetary placement within a Natal Chart has its own very specific vibrational frequency. So over the next few weeks, I started playing around with this concept, and I eventually came up with a method for how to convert the sign, degree, and placements of the planets and other factors in an Astrology chart into SOUND frequencies.

However, I am not a musician, and I don't play any instruments. So I teamed up with Tom, who is an amazingly gifted musician. I gave him the set of frequencies for my own Chart, and he sat down and turned those frequencies into musical notes and tones and composed a gorgeous piece of music based on MY Natal Chart. How cool is that!!

And now, we are thrilled to be able to offer this unique, exclusive and custom-made product to YOU. We will create for you your very own completely personal song – music that expresses the unique essence of who you ARE at all levels of your Being!

I named this innovative new product "Your Soul, Set to Music™," and this is how we can create a personal Song that is all about YOU: First, I calculate your Natal Chart, and then I convert the key points in your chart into frequencies. And then I hand those over to Tom, and he uses his incredible musical talent to compose a song that is the song of YOUR frequencies. It's literally the song of YOUR Soul, set to music!

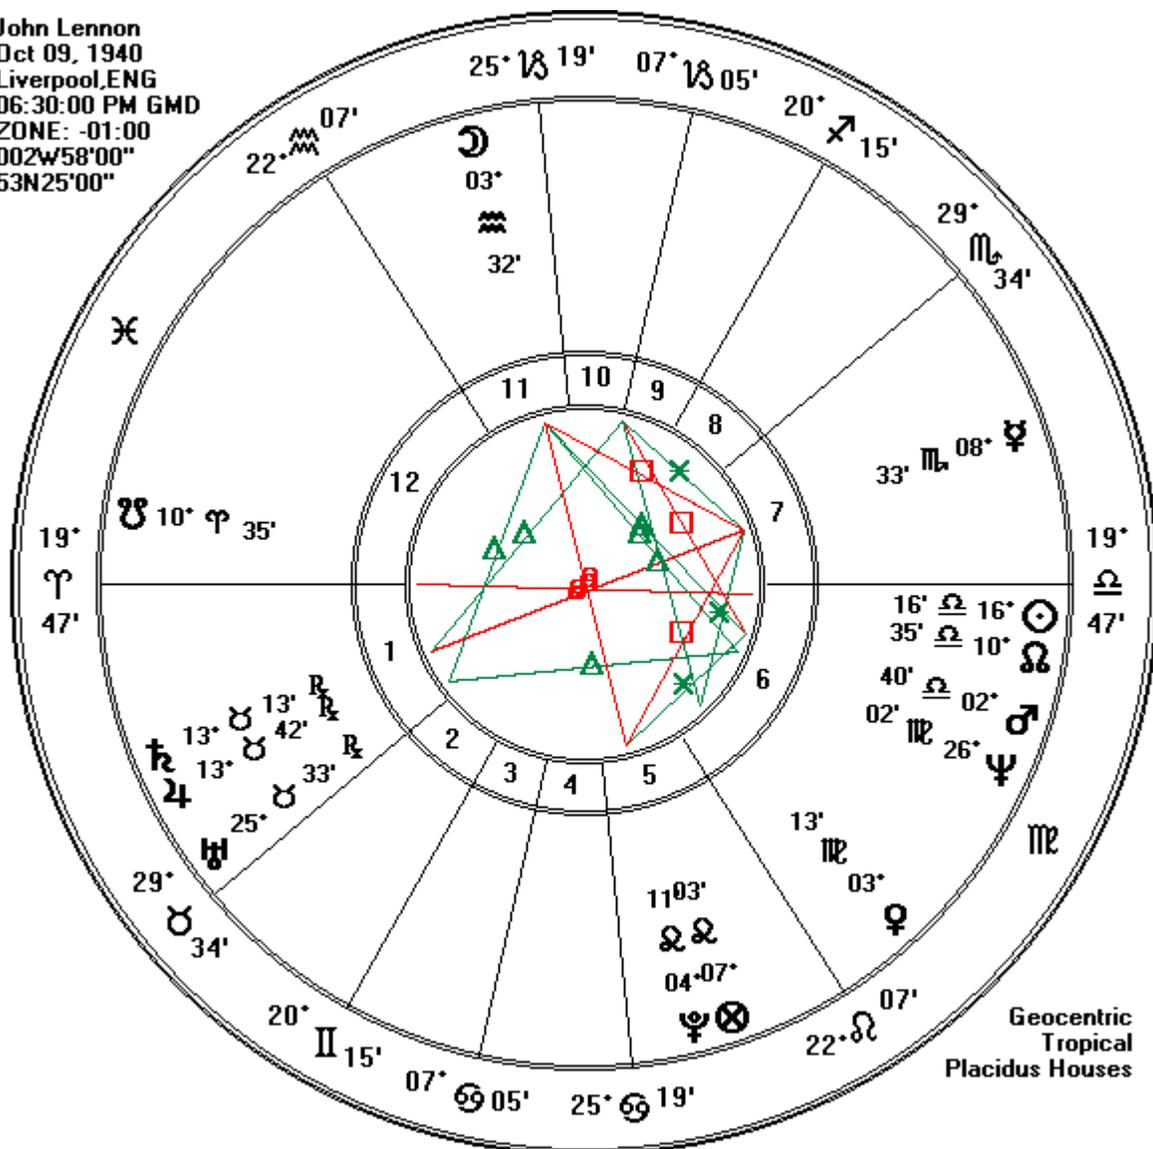

Here's how it works:

Your Natal Chart is your Personal Blueprint for Life – a map of your unique personality and all of your characteristics. Each person's chart is different, and contains incredibly detailed information about every aspect of that person and their path in life.

Your soul, as shown through your Natal Chart, is the specific combination of frequencies that make up YOUR unique Identity Pattern. Each of the planets, signs, and other configurations in a Natal Chart represents a different aspect of your life: money, career, romance, family, your talents and gifts, your creativity, your relationships with friends, it's all in there. There are dozens of planetary placements and other factors that all combine in a singular and unique pattern to form an individual person's Natal Chart.

The easiest way to illustrate this is to give you a quick example using an actual person's chart. This is John Lennon's Natal Chart (I chose his because Tom talked about him in his music presentation):

John Lennon
 Oct 09, 1940
 Liverpool, ENG
 06:30:00 PM GMD
 ZONE: -01:00
 002W58'00"
 53N25'00"

See the geometric shapes (in red and green) in the center of the chart? These angles are formed as a result of each planet's interaction within this particular Natal Chart, and that is what started me realizing that Astrology and Music are both, at their core, combinations of geometric patterns.

Here is how I came up with the formula for converting a person's Natal Chart into Musical FREQUENCIES:

- * His Sun is in the 6th House at 16 degrees of Libra
- * His Moon is in the 11th House at 3 degrees of Aquarius
- * His Ascendant sign is 19 degrees of Aries
- * His Jupiter is in his 1st House at 13 degrees of Taurus

* His Mercury is in his 7th House at 8 degrees of Scorpio

And the list goes on -- I'm not going to continue listing ALL of his Natal Chart placements; I only need a few to show you a quick example, which is that each planet and each house cusp in a Natal Chart is represented by a DIFFERENT sign and a DIFFERENT degree within that sign.

Why is this important? Because EVERY specific component of an individual's Natal Chart is vibrating at a DIFFERENT FREQUENCY -- and these configurations are completely different from one person's Natal Chart to another's. And what I figured out how to do is calculate the exact sound frequencies that correlate to each component of a Natal Chart.

I'm keeping the rest of the details of my conversion method secret as it's my own proprietary formula. But now that I figured out how to do this, what I am able to do for you is convert all of the planetary placements in YOUR Natal chart into mathematical and musical frequencies, that Tom then uses to create incredibly unique music that resonates to YOUR own soul!

If you've ever listened to a song on the radio that a talented musician wrote for a loved one and thought "Gee, I wish someone would write a beautiful song about ME," now you can have that! The personal music we will create for you will express all of the various facets of your unique personality and soul.

Your custom-composed music CD will contain the music of your own personal soul frequencies. There are actually 7 distinct sections to each personal Natal music composition, because I convert the configurations in your Natal Chart into frequencies that correlate to your body's primary centers of energy: The 7 Chakras. Tom then uses these specific combinations of frequencies to compose 7 musical "themes" within your own personal song: one related to each of your 7 Chakras.

In essence, your "song" is more like a full-fledged music album that contains 7 individual segments (each is like its own "mini-song"). By encompassing the specific core soul frequencies from YOUR Natal Chart that correlate to the Chakras, your personal music can re-balance and fine-tune all 7 of the Chakra energy centers in your body so that you are more able to function at your best -- physically, mentally, and emotionally.

Therefore, in addition to YOUR OWN SONG being just a cool & fun thing to have, listening to the Music created from YOUR specific personal frequencies can be very beneficial to you in a number of ways:

- * It can help you tune out the distracting and negative influences of the outside world by helping you tune back to your OWN frequencies.
- * It can balance you emotionally, and help you relax if you're feeling stressed.
- * It can increase mental clarity and help you make clearer decisions.
- * It can help you more easily access your own inner creativity and ideas.
- * It can make you feel more motivated and focused.
- * It can help you maintain a better, more consistent and more vibrant energy level throughout the day.
- * It can assist you in getting in touch with and making the most of your personal talents.
- * And overall, it just makes you feel GOOD because it helps you stay attuned to the frequencies that are best for YOUR individual happiness and wellbeing!

All kinds of things in our daily lives can throw our personal frequencies off balance and cause these frequencies to become “out of tune.” The balance of our system is unfortunately all too easily influenced by outside forces and that’s how we end up becoming “stressed out.” When our systems are IN balance, we feel at peace with ourselves and those around us. When we are OUT of balance, we are far more susceptible to ending up in negative states such as anger, irritability, anxiety, depression, lack of motivation and focus, lowered immune system (that’s why we get sick more easily when we’re stressed), fatigue, and plain old feeling “blah.” Just like a guitar needs to be tuned from time to time, our personal energy field is the same way.

This gives whole new meaning to the fields of “Music Therapy” and “Sound Healing.” In fact, Tom told me when we met that one of his goals was to start doing Sound Healing sessions for people – but since he has a “day job” as a schoolteacher, that didn’t seem feasible for him right now. Therefore, he was thrilled when I came up with the idea of converting people’s Natal Charts into Music, because an individual person’s Natal Chart Music is quite beneficial TO THAT SPECIFIC PERSON. So, listening to your own chart’s musical frequencies IS a new form of “sound healing!”

Countless studies have found that listening to harmonious music is beneficial for people suffering from all kinds of health conditions, including cancer, high blood pressure, depression, anxiety, addictions, immune system dysfunction, chronic pain, insomnia, and so much more. And the one piece of music that is totally harmonious to your own individual biological system is music that is created specifically FOR YOU based on your own frequencies!

(By the way, one thing that I’m sure will be good news to many people is that soothing music has also been found to lower cortisol levels. And as you have probably heard in the news by now, lowering cortisol is a key factor that can help people lose weight – especially “belly fat!”)

It can be very healing, clearing and balancing to listen to the vibrational tones that correlate to the blueprint of YOUR personal frequencies. Listening to this every morning will help “set” you in the right tone to go about your day – the more properly “aligned” you are, the more shielded you are from outside influences that could negatively influence your system.

Whenever your energies feel “off” (physically, mentally, or emotionally), turn to your personal frequencies to help “realign” you back to being YOURSELF.

“Each human personality is like a piece of music, having an individual tone and a rhythm of its own. What secret is there in music which attracts all those who listen to it? It is the rhythm which is being created. It is the tone of that music which tunes a soul and raises it above depression and despair of everyday life in this world. And if one knew what rhythm was needed for a particular individual in his trouble and despair, what tone was needed, and to what pitch that person's soul should be raised, one would then be able to heal him with music.”

-- Sufi Master Hazrat Inayat Kahn (1882-1927).

PRODUCT #2:

As you can see, having a Personal Natal Chart Song is great for adults. But it's also hugely beneficial for CHILDREN to have their own personal frequency music. Here's why:

Children are even MORE sensitive to and overstimulated by the environment around them than we adults are. Therefore, as a parent, when you have a piece of music handy that is calibrated to your child's own frequencies, you can simply play your child's music whenever you want to help your child:

- * Focus and concentrate better on schoolwork and other tasks.
- * Enhance their self-esteem and self-confidence.
- * Calm down when they are overstimulated or upset.

- * Reduce their anxiety about things like a test at school tomorrow.
- * Be able to fall asleep better at night.
- * Tap into their creativity and their natural talents and gifts.

When you order a Natal Chart Song for a child, you can help them stay more closely attuned to their own best frequencies as they are growing up. What a beautiful gift to give a young person!

“NASA scientists have recently discovered that the universe itself has a song. Music is the soundtrack of our lives, whether we’re aware of it or not. It exists within, uniting and guiding us, and has helped heal body and spirit since the dawn of humanity.” Kathleen Barnes, author of several books on Natural Healing.

But wait – there’s more:

PRODUCT #3:

We ALSO do songs for COUPLES!

Not only can we create a song based on any INDIVIDUAL'S natal chart, we can also create a song for a COUPLE! I do this by taking BOTH partners' Natal Charts and using a well-known Astrological technique to blend the two charts together to form a THIRD chart called a "Composite Chart." This fascinating chart contains all of the factors that describe the unique Relationship Bond you and your partner share.

The personal Love Song we will create for you using this chart will contain seven distinct musical segments. It will be composed from the frequencies from your Composite Relationship Chart that correspond to each of these 7 factors necessary for a strong and happy romantic partnership:

- * The 7th House – the Astrological area of Partnership.
- * The Sun – the basic energy, vitality, and identity pattern of your relationship.
- * The Moon – the emotional "heart bond" of the love that you feel for and share with each other.
- * Mercury – communication and mental rapport.
- * Venus – affection, romance, fun, kindness, and friendship (the most stable and long-lasting relationships are the ones where the two people are good friends as well as lovers).
- * Mars – the attraction, passion and physical chemistry.
- * Saturn – commitment, and the ability to build a solid, long-term relationship foundation that will stand the test of time.

Since 2.3 million people get married every year, if you pick any popular love song such as Etta James' "At Last" or Elvis Presley's "Can't Help Falling in Love," "your song" is not really yours – you share it with thousands of other couples who are also using that same song. However, when you have the unique and very personal song we will compose JUST FOR YOU, you will have your very own "Love Song" that is YOURS and yours alone -- no other couple can ever share “your song,” because it’s a song made from the blend of you and your partner’s unique individual soul frequencies!!

If you’re getting married in the near future, imagine stepping out on to the dance floor for your first dance as a married couple while YOUR special music surrounds and uplifts you like a heavenly cloud. THAT’s what a “first dance” should feel like!

Another way you can this music at your wedding is to play it while you are walking down the aisle. It’s YOUR special music, and you can use it any way you want.

Your own personal “Love Song” is the music of your two energies blended into ONE. And this special song will last you for the rest of your lives – you can play it on Valentine’s Day, on your Anniversaries, or whenever you want to bond and share special moments as a couple.

And even if you’re already married, or not planning on having a wedding, you can still have your own Couples Love Song composed by us and enjoy all of the following ways it can enhance your relationship:

Listening to this music by yourself can help you:

- * Feel more connected to your partner even when you’re apart.
- * Help you tune in to what you most love about your partner.
- * Stay aligned with the love you feel in your heart (rather than focusing on your partner’s flaws or something annoying s/he did.)
- * Feel gratitude for all of the wonderful things your partner brings to your life.

- * Help you be more creative in coming up with ways to enhance and improve your relationship.

Listening to this music TOGETHER as a couple can:

- * Strengthen and deepen the bond you share.
- * Create more harmony and understanding between you.
- * Create more affection and romance between you.
- * Help you tune in to what you love most about each other.
- * Reconnect you to the happiest and most special moments in your relationship.
- * Help you both feel more inspired about your goals and dreams together for the future.

If you and your sweetie ever wanted to have a song that you can truly call “YOUR song,” this is IT. This musical composition is based on the energies of your unique relationship.

SPECIAL NOTE FOR ENGAGED COUPLES: If you are planning to order your own Personalized Love Song for your wedding, please know that it takes TIME for us to create these musical compositions, and therefore ordering as far in advance of your wedding as possible is advised. If you wait until your wedding is only a month away and we are too backlogged with orders, you may not get your music in time. ☹

GIFT SUGGESTION FOR YOUR BRIDAL PARTY: You can also order INDIVIDUAL Natal Chart songs as very unique and special “thank you” gifts for your bridesmaids and groomsmen! If you would like to order these as gifts for the members of your bridal party, we definitely need to receive your order at least 3-4 months prior to your wedding.

Use Order Form #2 below to order a Couples Love Song – and if you wish to order Individual Natal Chart songs for any of your bridal party, please fill out Order Form #1 and use a separate form for each person.

(By the way, if you know anyone who has a wedding or anniversary coming up, this personalized Love Song is a GREAT gift to give them!)

PRODUCT #4:

THE MUSIC OF YOUR “HIGHER SELF”

Let me start by answering the question: What is a “Higher Self?” All human beings have many layers and levels, some temporary, and some more permanent. For example, we have a physical body, a mind, and a unique personality -- these are some of our temporary aspects (they fade away after death). But there is an aspect of us that does NOT end with our physical death: Our Higher Self. Every person has one, and this Higher Self is known by many names throughout the world: Some cultures call it “Spirit,” some call it the part of us that is God/Divine, some refer to it as our personal Spirit Guide/Guardian Angel, and so forth.

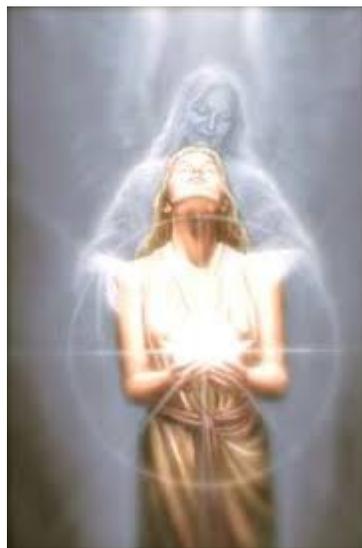

What are the “traits” of a Higher Self? Higher Selves are the eternal, wise and all-knowing aspects of our Being. Your Higher Self is that “inner voice” you may hear sometimes – the one giving you inspiration, comfort, and direction in life. The Higher Self can “speak” to you in many ways – by telepathically communicating thoughts to you; by giving you “hunches” and feelings that nudge you to go in certain directions; by showing you things in your dreams at night; by synchronistically arranging for things you need to be placed in front of you (i.e., you meet a person you are meant to meet; you see a poster for a lecture you need to attend to learn something important; you find a helpful article in a magazine on the table in the waiting room at the dentist’s office) – there are a myriad of ways your Higher Self can communicate with you and help you.

Your Higher Self is the part of you that is pure Spirit. It is eternal – it is the part of you that existed before your current body and personality-self was born, and will continue to exist after your current earthly experience as your current self ends.

I was shown how to do these charts by MY higher self, because I was told that it is time for humanity to really begin connecting with and living more in alignment with their Higher Selves. In case you hadn’t noticed, the world is experiencing a lot of rapid change right now, and tapping in to our source of Higher Awareness can be very helpful in navigating these new waters.

Getting in touch with your Higher Self can open up new possibilities in your life and lead you in exciting new directions.

As you establish a deeper and closer rapport with your Higher Self, you will find that you can go to Her/Him whenever you have questions about whether any particular decision, person, activity, or situation is beneficial for you or not. Your Higher Self always know what is best for you, but will not “force” that information onto you – you must ask for the guidance, and you must become receptive and know and understand how to read the messages your Higher Self sends.

The ultimate goal your Higher Self holds is to help empower and inspire you. Learning to connect with your Higher Self will make you feel more secure, more loved, more sure of yourself, and give you a renewed sense of energy and purpose. Over time, this can guide you in how to become the absolute best version of yourself that you can possibly be in this lifetime.

Another valuable thing about developing a closer connection to your Higher Self is that you can gain a perspective over your life that allows you to better understand WHY you have had the so-called “negative” experiences you’ve had in the past. Discovering higher wisdom about painful life experiences can help you find the lessons and gifts held within, free yourself from the painful emotions, and turn those experiences into sources of deeper strength and ability.

Your Higher Self has been “hiding in plain sight” in your Natal Chart all along – the key lies in certain configurations and connections to the planet Jupiter within your natal chart. It has been shown to me how to create a chart BEYOND your basic Natal Chart that accesses all of the wisdom your Higher Self has been holding for you until the right time. And that time is NOW.

This type of chart is completely new and exclusive – no other Astrologer has this. And we can now create custom-composed music from your Higher Self Chart – this music can be used any time to help you align with the energetic frequencies of your Higher Self – your higher source of guidance and wisdom – and is also excellent to use in meditation.

PRODUCT #5:

We are pleased to also offer another type of song that we can create for any adult or child: It's called a "Destiny Song." This special musical composition is based on a different type of Astrology Chart that many people have never heard of:

The music of "YOUR ULTIMATE DESTINY PATH"

Have you ever asked yourself questions such as, "What is my true 'calling'? Do I have any hidden talents or abilities I haven't tapped into yet? What is it I am meant to accomplish in this lifetime? What personal contribution can I make to the world?" Your Astrological "Destiny Chart" is a chart that reveals the HIGHEST Purpose of your soul in this lifetime.

A "calling" is something that is so true to who you ARE and that fulfills you so much that it satisfies and connects to every level of your being. Polls show that less than 20 % of people even know what their true calling even is, and more than half of all people report being unsatisfied with their current jobs.

If you agree that life is too short to spend 40 hours a week doing work that makes you unhappy and you are interested in knowing what YOUR true calling is and how to manifest it into your life, your “Destiny Song” can help align you with those specific frequencies. If you feel like you have some important “life purpose” you are meant to fulfill but you just aren’t sure what it is, listening to -- and in particular, meditating to -- your own personal “Destiny Song” can help you tap into the higher awareness that will give you those answers.

A Destiny Chart is a different chart than a Natal Chart --- one that takes you far BEYOND the basic “blueprint” of your Natal Chart into even deeper realms. To create Destiny Charts, I use a technique that analyzes information from the outer cosmos that is imprinted upon your soul at key times prior to birth. This is very advanced, esoteric Astrological knowledge – most Astrologers don’t even know about this particular technique, so I am thrilled to be able to offer it.

The core frequencies of your Destiny Chart resonate at the level of who you are MEANT to be when you are aligned with the “calling” you are here to accomplish in this lifetime.

Working with your personal “Destiny Song” on a regular basis can help you:

- * Discover your soul’s purpose.
- * Align with the path of your greatest happiness in life.
- * Realize your truest career calling.
- * Have the self-confidence and the motivation to follow your greatest dreams.
- * Align with the people and places that will put you on your highest path.
- * Connect with your personal keys to money and success.
- * Tap into talents and abilities you didn’t even know you had!

Meditating to the music of your own DESTINY can lead to all kinds of amazing revelations and insights and lead to profound spiritual awakenings!

Special Discount:

If you order more than one personal song (Natal, Higher Self, Destiny) for the SAME PERSON, you save $25 on EACH song!

(Use Order Form # 1 below to order)

Question: What are the differences between a NATAL chart, a HIGHER SELF chart, and a DESTINY chart?

Answer: In a quick nutshell,

Your NATAL CHART is your basic makeup – it's who you are; it includes all of your traits and abilities.

Your HIGHER SELF CHART goes BEYOND your Natal Chart to show you what the wise, eternal, spiritual aspect of you looks like – the part of you that has access to your personal spiritual guidance and higher wisdom.

And your DESTINY CHART reveals the particular calling or path in life that will be the most fulfilling for you and will allow you to make your greatest contributions to the world.

Working with the Music created from any of your personal charts can be of great benefit to you in your daily life. And working with the Music from all three charts -- Your Natal Chart, Your Higher Self Chart, and Your Destiny Chart -- can help you understand your self and your life-path at ALL levels of who you are and what your potential is for this lifetime.
